

THE QUARTET

The Official Newsletter of the Baltimore-Washington JAZZfest (BWJF)

“Keeping JAZZ Alive”

Special Edition - An Update - February 2019

Sunday, April 28, 2019

A Don't-Miss Event “Art and All That JAZZ”

What: Live JAZZ. Performers to be announced.

Where: African Art Museum of MD
11711 E. Market Place, Fulton, MD
20759 (Howard County)

When: Sunday, April 28, 2019,
2 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Cost: $25.00 per person (tickets available at the museum, online or via mail); $30.00 per person at the door the date of the event.

Exhibit: On the Wall of Fame
“Memories of Legendary JAZZ
greats”

- JAZZ Videos
- Door Prizes
- Circle of Stars Vendors
- Celebrity Guest Appearance

April
Is JAZZ
Appreciation
Month

As Pamela Hayashi, JAZZ reviewer for BWJF, wrote in reference to a Claude Ligon House of JAZZ event, “folks were ‘groovin to the beat’...”

- Refreshments included
- Seating is Limited
- Alcohol-free environment

LIVE

The Baltimore/Washington JAZZfest (BWJF) is a program of the African Art Museum of Maryland (AAMM) at 11711 East Market Place, Maple Lawn Community, Fulton, MD 20759 (Howard County) (301) 490-6070 - AfricanArtMuseumofMD@verizon.net - www.africanartmuseum.org