

African Art Museum of MD (AAMM)
Invites you for
Women's History Month Observance
“... on the subject of Women...”
Saturday, March 16, 2019
2 p.m. - 4 p.m.
at the

African Art Museum of Maryland (AAMM)
11711 E. Market Place
Maple Lawn Community
Fulton, MD. 20759 (Howard County)

FREE EVENT

Welcome Eleanor Hunt, Esq., Trustee of AAMM, Partner in the Law firm Lewicky, O'Connor, Hunt & Meiser, LLC and moderator of 2019 Women's Panel

Meet Dawn Cooper Barnes, Ph.D., as she shares her indigenous knowledge of the helmet-type mask of West Africa worn only by women in the Sande/Bundu Society.

Meet Ahleyah Abdul-Rahman, AAMM Spanish-language consultant, as she shares, in Spanish, explorations of the highlighted tapestry from Swazeland.

Experience a panel of high-profile, International women as they share their life's experiences of peace, prosperity and progress. The 2019 Women's Panel includes Jacqueline Kakembo, the AAMM international liaison, on her recent return from Angola and author and holocaust survivor Susan Darvas.

Enjoy light refreshments. Be eligible to win free admission for one to “JAZZ for a Sunday Afternoon” on April 28, 2019 in observance of JAZZ Appreciation Month. It promises to be a most pleasurable afternoon... especially with you there! Hope to see you.

Limited seating. Reservations requested.

RSVP by March 12, 2019

301.490.6070