

FREE

AFRICAN ART MUSEUM OF MARYLAND (AAMM)

Since 1980: Sharing the Energy of Africa
A 501(c)(3) not-for-profit institution

Continuing AAMM's Summer Speaker Series

In the Spirit of Sankofa: 20 Ways To Build Your Family Tree & Reclaim Your Ancestors

You Are Invited To Meet...

...Ellicia Bragg Chau, M. Ed.

A family historian who has spent decades researching her family while also sharing with others basic genealogy so they can also learn the How-To's of researching & reclaiming their own ancestors. Through lots of collaboration and research, Ellicia has documented multiple branches of her family tree, documented ancestors from early Colonial America, and reclaimed many of her enslaved and free people of color whose stories might otherwise have been lost. For most of her life, she has resided in Howard County as she, her parents and brother settled here in Columbia in 1974. Ellicia is a proud wife and mother, a lover of music and history, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, and an alumna of Hampton University and the University of Virginia.

African Art Museum of Maryland and HOCO250

Saturday, August 15, 2026 – 1 p.m.- 3 p.m.

at The

African Art Museum of Maryland
Long Reach Village Center

Lite
REFRESHMENTS

Seating Is Limited

8775 Cloudleap Court, Suite 112, Columbia, MD 21045

RSVP NOW!

Call: 410.740.7411 to RSVP or Email: info@africanartmuseum.org